

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air their political comments and try to signify it's truthfullness is a blatant prejudicial attack on truth and fairness on our damaged democracy. At this rate anyone in the media can quote their distortions and make it sound like the truth.

Since the Republican Party has taken over the Congress, Presidency, and the Supreme Court this country has been polarized into two hate factions. This will be another nail in our democratic coffin.

Mr. Powel, the FCC is under your rule; are you trying to say there is no past ruling on this abomination? If so, than make one and let it be as fair as possible. You will be getting credit for the outcome of this matter.
